

ASEM People's Forum 5, Vietnam, Hanoi, September 2005

Content

Opening Ceremony

Opening speech by Mr. Vu Xuan Hong, President of the Vietnam Union of Friendship Organizations, Chairman of the National Organizing Committee, Vietnam 13

Welcoming speech by H.E. Vu Kltoan, Deputy Prime Minister of Vietnam, Vietnam 16

Opening speech by Sally Rousette, International Organizing Committee, France 18

Key-note speech: 'Challenging Times' by Walden Bello, Executive Director Focus on the Global South, Philippines 19

Key-note speech: 'A Perspective from Europe' by Yves Berthelot, French Committee of International Solidarity, France 25

Key-note speech: 'A Perspective from Vietnam' by Mme. Nguyell Tlti Binh, Former Vice President of Vietnam, President of the Vietnam Peace and Development Foundation, Vietnam 32

Peace and Security Cluster 35

Plenary

'The movement of all movements against war-based neo-liberalism: the 90s, 15 February 2003, Today and Tomorrow' by Vittorio Agnoletto, GUE/NGL Member of the European Parliament, Italy 35

'Building a culture and movement for peace and security' by Achin Vanaik, TNI Fellow, India 44

Terrorism, Anti-Terrorism and People's Response 71

'Putting Terrorism in Perspective' by Achin Vanaik, TNI Fellow, India. 71

'The "war on terror" as "war on freedom and democracy"' by Ben Hayes, State Watch, UK 74

‘Peace and Security’ by Athanasios Pafilis, General Secretary of the World Peace Council, Member of European Parliament, Greece	47
‘Safeguarding World Peace - Our Aspirations and Responsibility’ by Chen Huaifan, Chinese People's Association for Peace and Disarmament, China	53
Conflicts and Resolutions from below: How do different ethnic and religious groups work together to solve armed conflicts?	57
Remarks by Harn Yawnghe, Euro-Burma Office, Canada	57
‘The history of Pontanima is a short history of reconciliation in Bosnia-Herzegovina’ by Ivo Markovic, Interreligious Service, Bosnia and Herzegovina	61
Dialogue of Civilizations, Cultures and Religions in Europe and in Asia	79
‘Dialogue capacity of a nation "using chopsticks and speaking French"' by Duong Trung Quoc, Vietnam	79
‘Mondialisation et Dialogue Des Civilisations, by Francois Houtart, Centre Tricontinental, Belgium	83
‘Hegemony and Civilisation Interaction’ by Chandra Muzaffar, JUST, Malaysia	88
‘Threats and Challenges of Globalizations to Lumad People of Mindanao’ by Alim M. Bandara, Timuay Justice and Governance, Philippines	94
‘Chinese experiences in Indonesia, especially in Javanese and Chinese Moslem Context’ by Effendie Tanumihardja, Yogyakarta Interfaith Forum, Indonesia	98
‘The function of Tibetan Religious Culture in Dialogue of Civilisations, Cultures and Religions between Asia and Europe’ by Nyima Tsering, China Association for Preservation and Development of Tibetan Culture, China	101
Peace Movements in Asia and Europe: The Way Ahead	104
Remarks by Merzi Florencia Chan, Iraq Solidarity Campaign, Philippines	104
‘Kilusan para sa Pambansang Demokrasya’, Movement for National Democracy, Philippines
Remarks by Esther Vivas, Stop the War Platform, Spain	110
Remarks by America Vera-Zavola, ATTAC, Sweden	113
‘Peace Movement, Indonesia and ASEM: Some Issues’ by A. Patra M. Zen. Indonesian Legal Aid Foundation, Indonesia	115

Remarks by Matthias Mormino, Tavola della Pace, Italy	121
Weapons of Mass Destruction: Implication on Asia and Europe	123
‘A report of a Hibakusha of Hiroshima’ by Murata Tadahiko, Assistant Director, Hiroshima Federation of A-bomb Suffers, Japan	123
‘Let's voice our opposition to the use of toxic chemicals and weapons of mass destruction’ by Nguyen Trong Nhan, Vice President, The Vietnam Association for Victims of AO/dioxin - V A V A, Vietnam	128
‘The Hazards of Depleted Uranium - What to do?’ by Henk van der Keur, Laka Foundation, Documentation and Research Centre on Nuclear Energy, International Coalition to Ban Uranium Weapons (ICBUW), Netherlands	131
‘What is "Operation Iraqi Freedom" that Used Radioactive DU Weapons Again?’ by Nobuo Kazashi, Director, NO DU Hiroshima Project, Japan	134
‘What is "Operation Iraqi Freedom" that Used Radioactive DU Weapons Again?’ by Sokim Phan, Youth Association of Cambodia, Cambodia	138
People's Response to the Rise of Militarism	140
‘Militarized and Dictatorial Culture? A Case for Thailand’ by Pravit Rojanaphruk, Thailand	140
‘The most militarised powers lead the global economy - EU and arms trade’ by Eeva Simola, Finnwatch, Finland	157
Economic and Social Security Cluster	167
Plenary
Remarks by Christophe Aguiton, ATTAC France	167
Remarks by Tran Dac Loi, Secretary General of Vietnam Peace and Development Foundation, Vietnam	172
Remarks by Lidy Nacpil, Philippines	177
GATS Challenges to National Sovereignty and People's Security	182
‘GATS, The Development Threats and the EU's Agenda’ by Peter Hardstaff, World Development Movement, UK	182
‘The Dutch GATS-Platform's Challenges to GATS and the EU services directive’	190

by Roeline Knottnerus, the GATS platform, the Netherlands
GATS and Mode 4: Issues and Migrant Perspective	193
Remarks by Nonoi Hacbang, Platform of Filipino Migrant Organizations, the Netherlands	193
‘GATS, The Development Threats and the EU's Agenda’ by Nick Clark, Policy Officer, Trades Union Congress, UK	201
Protectionist Policies in Agriculture: Implications for Peasants and Farmers in Both Regions	203
‘Fisheries policies of developed countries and the impact on the export of fisheries products from developing countries’ by Vu Van Trieu, Vietnam Association of Seafood Exporters and Producers, Vietnam	203
‘The impact of the CAP's reform inside the EU and on developing countries’ by Jacques Berthelot, Solidarite, France	210
The Impact of Water Privatization in Asia and Europe and People's Responses	225
‘The UK Government and Water Privatization’ by Peter Hardstaff, World Development Movement, UK	225
‘The camouflaged variations of the privatization move by the World Bank Group: Public Private Partnerships and the Demand-Responsive Approach or Community-Driven Development’, by Uwe Hoering, Weed, Germany	231
Poverty Alleviation, Debt and Equitable Development, The Role of PRS and ADB	234
‘The Role of Germany and Other European donor-countries and NGO activities’ by Uirike Bey, Asienhaus, Germany	234
‘The Vietnam Farmers' Union and the National Target Program on Hunger Eradication, Poverty Alleviation and Employment’ by Nguyen Quoc An, Vietnam Farmers Union, Vietnam	240
Corporate Social Responsibility	250
‘Codes of conduct: Straight Jacket or Protective clothing?’ by Apo Leong, Asia Monitor Resource Centre, Hong Kong	250
Health and Education for All	251
‘The Development of the ASEM-Process and the relevance of social aspects’	251

By Christian Salazar Volkman, UNICEF, Vietnam

Migration Issues and Solutions: Challenges to Trade Unions and Migrant Organizations	259
‘New forms of organizing’ by Sinapan Samydorai, President of the Think Centre, Singapore	259
‘New challenges and actors’ by Margaret Healy, UK	261
‘Organizing Migrant Workers’ by Nick Clark, Policy Officer, Trades Union Congress, UK	270
Building Cross Regional Labour Solidarity among automobile Workers and Industry in Asia and Europe	273
‘Workers in the global war of competition’ by Wolfgang Schaumberg, Autokoordination / Labournet/ TIE, Germany	273
‘Workers in the global war of competition’ by Alain Baron, SU-PTT, Trade Union in postal activities and telecommunication services, France	276
‘Philippine Toyota workers struggle’ by Ed G. Cubelo, President Toyota Motor Philippines, Corporation Workers Association (TMPCWA), Philippines	271
Alternatives to Water Privatization	281
‘Making the Public Work: Alternative to Manila Water Privatization’ by Frances TC Lo, Bantay Tubig, Philippines	281
Women Workers in the informal economy	291
‘Indonesia Labour Law, The Plight of Women Homebased Workers’ by Ratno Cahyadi Sembodo & Hesti R Wijaya, Homenet, Indonesia	291
‘Security of Women Workers in the Informal Economy’ by Philippines Country Presentation	300
Economic Growth and Environmental Sustainability	305
‘Renewable Energy as Key to Sustainable Development’ by Jurgell Maier, German NGO Forum Environment & Development, Germany	305
‘NGO’s Role in the Sustainable Development in Tibet, by Dyalmo Drugpa, China Association for Preservation and Development of Tibetan Culture, Tibet	308

Democratization and People's Rights Cluster	309
Plenary
Remarks by Hilary Wainwright, Red Pepper, UK	309
Remarks by Ton Nu Tlzi Nilllz, Vice Chairwoman, Committee for Foreign Affairs Vietnam National Assembly, Vietnam	318
'The Challenge of Democracy in Southeast Asia' by Joel Rocamora, Philippines	322
Remarks by Debbie Stothard, Malaysia	329
Democratization, Good Governance and People's Participation	331
'Working in New Democratic Spaces: a UK Perspective' by M. Taylor. Professor of Urban Governance and Regeneration, UK	331
Remarks by Ng'ell Thi Hoang Van, Youth Federation, Vietnam	333
Women's Empowerment and Emerging New Challenges (Post Beijing +10)	337
'Women's Voices Silenced Again - The Controversy about Banning Signs of Religious and Political Affiliation in French Schools' by Marie-Aimee Buisson Lucas, France	337
'Structural Adjustment in European Welfare States and its Implications for Women' by Christa Wichterich, NRO Women's Forum, Germany	342
Remarks by Nguyell Thi Thallh Holl, Vietnam Women's Union, Vietnam	349
Democratisation and Regional Integration	352
'Whose Agenda is the European Union Pursuing? (A Critique of the EU as a Neoliberal Project and the Way forward)' by Eeva Simola, Finnwatch, Finland	352
Press, Freedom and Democracy	362
New Politics: Transforming Elite into Substantial Democracy	365
'People's Movement and Political Parties' by Marco Consolo, Communist Refoundation Party, Italy	365
'New Politics. Principles Practise Challenges' by Hilary Wainwright, Red Pepper, UK	370

Role of people's movements and civil society (including NGOs) and their relationships with each other and with governments.	376
‘For Friendship, Cooperation and Development: The Role of Civil Society and NGOs’ by Li Jianping, The Chinese People's Association for Friendship with Foreign Countries, China	376
‘Capacity Building for Civic Participation in Policy Process in the Transitional Democracy- the Indonesian Experience’ by Rachmat Adji Prakmo, Institute for Policy and Community Development Studies (OPCOS), Indonesia	379
From Service Delivery to Rights-Based Approach in Empowering Vulnerable Groups	389
‘The Statement of the Association for the Support of Vietnamese Handicapped and Orphans on Sharing Context and Experienced of Empowering People with Disabilities in Vietnam at ASEM People's Forum in Hanoi’ by Pham Vall Vu, General Administration Expert, Association for the Support of Vietnamese Handicapped and Orphans, Vietnam	389
‘Advocacy Movement of Diffable's Rights in Indonesia. Case Study of Indonesia’ DPO Works’ by Setia Adi Purwanta, General Administration Expert, Association for the Support of Vietnamese Handicapped and Orphans, Vietnam	392
‘Implementation of Inclusive Education in Indonesia. A Person with Disabilities’ Perspective’ by Didi Tarsidi, President The Indonesian Association of Persons with Visual Impairment (PERTUNI), Indonesia	395
‘European Experiences of the Impact of Disability Organizations on Disability Policy’ by Ingemar Farm, General Secretary, Swedish Disability Federation, Sweden	398
‘Rights-based Approach: An Instrument and Method for Engagement and Critique’ by Max M. de Mesa, Philippines	401
Democratization and Establishment of Rule of Law	409
‘Rights-based Approach: An Instrument and Method for Engagement and Critique’ by Liem Soei Liong, Netherlands	409
Human Rights: a Comprehensive Approach	412
‘Right-based Approach: An Instrument and Method for Engagement and Critique’ by Chen Shiqiu, Vice President, China Society for Human Rights Studies (CHRS), China	412

Closing Ceremony	417
Speech by Esther Vivas, Stop the War Platform, Spain	417
Speech by Theresa Agravante, Philippines	418
Speech by Mina Hakkarainen, Chair of the Finish-Vietnamese Friendship Association, Finland	420
Speech by Zhan Xiaom, China	422
Closing speech by Mr. Vu Xuan Hollg, Chairman of Vietnam NOC, Vietnam	424
Final Statement ASEM People's Forum V. "People's Actions for Human Security in Asia and Europe"	426