

First published in the Netherlands in 1994 by

Transnational Institute (TNI)
Paulus Potterstraat 20
1071 DA Amsterdam NL

Chapters 2, 4, 5, 6, and 7 have been published in 1994 in Nicaragua:

Klaus-Dieter Tangermann, Ivana Ríos (eds.)
*Alternativas Campesinas: Modernización Agrícola
y Organización Campesina en Centroamérica*
by CRIES/Latino Editores
Apartado Postal C-163
Managua, Nicaragua

Copyright 1994 by the Transnational Institute

Cover design by InBeelding
Printed by Primavera

CIP-GEGEVENS KONINKLIJKE BIBLIOTHEEK, DEN HAAG

Peasants

Peasants beyond protest in Central America : challenges for ASOCODE and strategies towards Europe / ed. by Kees Biekart, Martin Jelsma. - Amsterdam : Transnational Institute

Met lit. opg.

ISBN 90-70563-09-06

Trefw.: landbouworganisaties ; Midden-Amerika / landbouw;
Midden-Amerika

Peasants beyond Protest in Central America

Challenges for ASOCODE Strategies towards Europe

edited by

*Kees Biekart
Martin Jelsma*

Transnational Institute
Amsterdam 1994

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

We wish to thank the many people who have contributed in different ways to the various stages of this project. We want to mention especially Ivana Ríos and Klaus-Dieter Tangermann of CRIES (Nicaragua), who coordinated the Central American part of the research project, and edited with Rolando Rivera the Spanish edition Alternativas Campesinas: Modernización Agrícola y Organización Campesina en Centroamérica (Managua: Latino Editores, 1994). It was also a pleasant and inspiring experience to collaborate during two years with the Regional Commission and the staff of ASOCODE, and in particular with Wilson Campos.

Finn Hansen (IBIS, Denmark), Karin Urschel and Klaus Linsenmeier (Buntstift, Germany) have been extremely helpful throughout the process, particularly in establishing communications with Managua.

Mandy MacDonald, Francis McDonagh, Chris Whitehouse and Annemarie Oostenbrink translated chapters from Spanish and from Dutch; Niala Maharaj and James Cronk edited parts of the final text.

Finally, thanks go to Jan Willem van der Raad, for coordinating the preparatory phase of the project, to Erik Heijmans — who assisted in organising the Conference of April 1993 — and to the staff of TNI for their unconditional support.

Peasants beyond Protest in Central America is the product of a joint project with ASOCODE and CRIES, and has been funded by Buntstift (Germany), HIVOS (Netherlands), TROCAIRE (Ireland), SCIAF (Scotland), and the Commission of the European Community.

CONTENTS

1. Introduction: Peasants beyond Protest in Central America Kees Biekart, Martin Jelsma	7
Part I: Challenges for Asocode
2. Asocode: Our View on Development Wilson Campos	27
3. Peasant Organisation in Central America: Taking the Path towards the Future Isabel Román	33
4. Democracy and the Peasants Edelberto Torres-Rivas	39
5. Agrarian Structures and Small Producers: Review and Prospects Eduardo Baumeister	59
6. Asocode: Challenges and Perspectives for the Central American Peasant Movement Jorge Hernández	85
7. Peasant Agriculture and Development Alternatives Salvador Arias, Roberto Rodríguez	111
Part II: Strategies towards Europe
8. Relations between the European Community and Central America in the 1990s: Continuity, Reactivation or Change? José Antonio Sanahuja	141
9. San José X: An Opportunity for All of Us Concertación, Asocode, Cifca	207
10. "We Don't Need All Those NGOs" Interview with Wilson Campos	215
Abbreviations	222